*Published annually
by the Key Club of Peach County Comprehensive High School,
Fort Valley, Georgia*

Hi Gail,
It's been a long time since I have seen you. I really miss you. Come back next year so we can have fun
again. Love you!
Ted Scoppio

Hello Dail, How's everything with you? You've missed out on nothing this year, but we all have missed you as being Dail and Dail only your trials and tribulations are contributing a great amount of success into your life.
May God Bless You.

This year Peach County High has a whole new look. A whole new building; and a whole new name. In just one short year, Peach County High has moved from a creaky old building up to a modern high school complex. One of the newest and best in the state. We should all feel a sense of pride to be able to attend a school of such high quality.

DEDICATION

This year the annual is dedicated to someone very special. She has devoted many years of her life to the education of young people. She is not only an excellent teacher but also a dear friend. Hence, she is someone who has touched the heart of nearly every student who has graduated from this school. We, therefore, take the greatest of pride in dedicating this year's Retrospect to . . .

SENIORS

Greetings to the Class of 1975!

This is a time in which society and schools are undergoing revolutionary changes. Many of these changes are in the direction of broader opportunities--hence your new Comprehensive High School. You are the first Senior Class to have the privilege to attend and graduate from this school.

I sincerely feel that you are a class that is gifted, serious, and socially concerned. May you always be uncompromising in your admiration of integrity, honesty, and compassion for human needs.

I trust your years at PCHS have served to open your minds and to change your lives for the better. If change brings about better minds, lives and spirits, then the changes here are more important than ever before.

God's richest blessings to each of you.

Sincerely,

Ernest R. Anderson, Superintendent
Peach County Schools

TO BE A SENIOR is the ambition of every freshman that ever entered a high school; it's the determination of every sophomore and the next step for every junior. This exalted position is looked on with awe as one that can be filled by a plucky few who have escaped the ax in their math classes and hurdled the obstacles of their chemistry classes. This senior is a well rounded individual who has a nickname for every teacher in the school, can cheat on tests with the utmost finesse, and can smell a crap course a year in advance. In a way they are "King on the Mountain."

But to the senior, this last year is a form of triumph. It is testimony that they have been through one of the best high schools in the area. It means that they will be on their own and freed from this one responsibility only to enter into new and bigger ones. To the senior, this last year is really nothing but the end of the beginning.

Last Will And Testament

remember me
I, Clarence Woods, will to Brenda McGhee the common sense that I have . . . I, Ginger Shelley, leave the ability to lock the keys in the car at the homecoming football game to anyone smart enough to do it . . . I, Jo Ann Sealock, leave my warm seat to any future basketball player . . . I, "Pecker," Ernie Jones, leave my ability to sit in your car and not get caught by Miss Harrelson . . . I, Renda Schofield, will to all the seniors of '76" the ability to get closer to God, so you'll make it through the school year an average student . . . I, Barbara Jones, will the next person my locker number, and hope he or she finds better luck in trying to open it than I did . . . I, Debbie Sanders, leave to anyone who has enough nerve and enough patience the position as Miss Terrell on Senior Day . . . I, Carole Jackson, will to anyone the ability to make straight A's in their Senior year without taking home any books . . . I, Sandy Robinson, hereby leave to Elizabeth Robinson any mathematical ability I might have had in hopes to raise her Algebra grades . . . I, Joe Rinehart, leave my ability to check out on the first day of bird season to Matt, knowing he'll use it . . . I, Linda Hunt, leave to certain people in PCHS the memories of teaching a Yankee what "grits, " "rednecks," and Ya'lls are . . . Guy Hunnicutt leaves his ability to smoke in school and hardly ever get caught . . . I, Sam Williams, will to all underclassmen the right to do as the man says . . . I, Ronald Williams, will to Billy McCrary the skill to play football without getting kicked off the team . . . I, Lucinda Williams will to all future cheerleaders the ability to keep yelling a little louder . . . I, Gretel Williams will to Ervin Rumph the ability to keep on smoking; without getting caught by the cameras . . . I, Jeanette Weaver, will Carolyn George an orange bra and a white sock . . . I, Kenneth Tukes, will to Mr. Dawson a bag of peanuts and a bucket of pecans . . . Steve Towns wills to James Howard the ability to get a girlfriend and learn how to kiss . . . I, Becky Taylor leave all underclassmen the ability to know when I'm sick before I am . . . I, Mary Tabor will to Jo-Ann Alston my ability to get along with Mrs. McCormick . . . I, Doug Hopkins, leave absolutely nothing, because I'm sure I'll need everything I've got for college . . . I, Patty Smith, leave to Mary Elizabeth Adams, my muzzle mouth only to be removed on dire occasions - like every weekend . . . I, Hilton Smith, will my "GTX" to anyone able to afford the tires and the tickets . . . I, Carey Flanders hereby leave all my bubblegum baseball cards to Coach Fibbe . . . John Schofill, Jim Moorman, and Robert Griffin leave all their out of school activities to anyone who thinks they can handle them . . . I, Dianne McGhee, will to Sandra White, the ability to live and let live and to also find happiness with Elvin as I've found with Adrian (Doc. J) . . . I, Ginger Britt, will to my sister Wanda Britt, to skip one whole week of school without getting caught . . . I, Michael Massie, will to Ricky Hudson the ability to speed across the parking lot slinging gravel under Mr. McClendon's watchful eye . . . I, Cherry Smith, leave my place in college algebra to my cousin Lamar in case he gets tired of the board . . . I, Gregory Small, will to Henry Williams, Mrs. Cleveland's Literature book with all my copy sheets which didn't help . . . I, Susan Sirmans, take with me part of Charmagne Dent since she has more than she needs . . . Larry Shurley leaves his "U-Award" to anyone that can spell his name right the first time . . . I, Teresa Oliver, leave my ability to miss almost half the year of school and still pass Mrs. Johnson . . . I, Sandra Harris, will to all the Juniors the ability to get through the Senior class . . . I, Cathy Cadenhead, leave the ability to fall out of a Music and Art desk to Ann Crouch . . . I, Geof Chapman, leave to anyone willing to accept it, my ability to get hurt every year of high school . . . I, Pat Hammontree, leave to all future seniors the ability to write a last will and testament that doesn't sound STALE . . . I, Jody Grant leave Laura Bowden, the ability to check out at 12 o'clock and be at Khoury's by 3:30 . . . I, Linda Clark, Leave to any unfortunate Junior the ability to put up with Mrs. Brown in study hall for two hours a day . . . I, Ginny Graham leave to Nancy Louis Peavy an "aegis" to protect her from any boy who has the nerve to come near her . . . I, Tommy Champion, hereby leave my nickname, GRAMPA, to anyone capable of bearing it . . . I, David George will to any underclassman my own J.J. hat, to wear whenever they say Din-o-mite . . . Darlene Carstarphen, wills to Michele Miller, the ability to fight it out one more year without me . . . I, Margie Garnto leave to my younger sister the ability to bribe Coach Fibbe with homemade sugar cookies . . . I, Geraldine French, will to anyone the ability to do Miss Bell's homework correctly fifteen minutes before class . . . I Elvin Fluellen will to Sam White myself . . . I, Gwen Edwards, Leave . . . I, Debbie Douglas, leave to Jeff Blair a Sports Handbook in hopes that he might learn the difference between a home run and a touchdown . . . Bonnie and Kay leave Coach Fibbe and his buggars to all underclassmen because we've had enough of 'em . . . I, Julie Cummings, leave to any 100 pound weakling all my spare weight to throw around . . . I, Muriel Yvette Appling with an almost sound mind, but very sound body leave Kathy Ezell the same thing I got from PCHS, N-O-T-H-I-N-G . . . I, Lynne Anthoine, leave my place on the bench to anyone who wants splinters for four years . . . I, Glenn A. Adkinson, leave PCHS NOTHING . . . I, Marie Adamson, leave my Math and Algebra abilities to someone who doesn't want any . . . I, Charles Adams, Leave my holey sweater to Miss Harrelson to sanctify her for the underclassmen . . .

Editor's Epilogue

As you turn through the pages of this year's RETROSPECT counting how many times you are pictured, take a moment to think of the many people who put this book together for you. Although I did a great deal of work, this publication needed the help of a great many other individuals.

I would like to thank Ken Joyner for his photographic aid, Eileen Lovett for her clerical assistance, Mr. McClendon and all of my teachers for their patience and tolerance, and most of all, my staff and our Advisor, Mr. Fred Bean.
